

Golden Baggers

Code of Conduct for members and friends

The Golden Baggers are fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all. The allotment group believes that it is important that members should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the allotment group with any member of the committee.

As a member of Golden Baggers, you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:

- All members must take responsibility in ensuring they are up to date with the terms and conditions, have read the health and safety advice and understand and adhere to them.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- Members should recognise the valuable contribution made by the committee who are volunteers. They give their time and resources to ensure that the allotments continue to exist.
- All members should be a positive role model, treat other members with the same level of respect you would expect to be shown to you.
- Use correct and proper language at all times.
- Members are not allowed to smoke in the allotment.
- Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated.
- Encourage everyone to enjoy the allotments and understand that people have different motivations for taking part.

Name of MemberDate

Signed